

Preface

The fourth International Conference on Recent Advances in Pure and Applied Mathematics (ICRAPAM 2017) was held on May 11–15, 2017 in Kusadasi, Turkey, at Palm Wings Ephesus Resort Hotel. The conference was organized by Istanbul Commerce University in Istanbul and supported by Istanbul Commerce University, Turkish Academy of Sciences, Turkish Cooperation and Coordination Agency (TIKA), Albaraka Turk, and Simurg. Organizers of the conference gratefully acknowledge their support. The Conference chair was Professor Ekrem Savaş, and the Scientific Committee consisted of mathematicians from 23 countries. The conference consisted of 7 plenary lectures, 210 contributed oral presentations and 22 poster presentation in almost all fields of pure and applied mathematics. This conference included also an excursion to the ancient city of Ephesus.

This issue of Filomat contains 26 papers presented at the conference and selected by the usual high standard editorial procedure of the journal. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to the authors of all papers submitted for this issue and to the referees for their kind help and assistance in evaluation of contributions. Special thanks to Filomat for the support.
